Nice Talent Asset Management Limited (“Nice Talent”) was recognised as a New-Edge Family Office Service Provider in the institutional category at the 2025 Forbes China New-Edge Family Office Selection awards ceremony, held on 10 September 2026 at W Shanghai – The Bund. Mr. Jimmy Chan, Chief Executive Officer & Managing Partner, and Ms. Cathy Lau, CEO of Greater China & Managing Director of Nice Talent, led the Nice Talent team on stage to receive the award. At the same ceremony, Ms. Cathy Lau and Ms. Rae Zhang, the President of Talent Global Capital Pte. Ltd., were each named a New-Edge Family Office Leader in the individual category, bringing Nice Talent three honours in a single evening.

Mr. Jimmy Chan led the Nice Talent delegation through the day’s programme, which included a media luncheon, the New-Edge Family Office Summit under the theme “New-Edge Power: Exploring New Value Coordinates for China’s Family Offices”, and the awards gala. The summit brought together leaders from family offices, private banking, trusts, legal and tax advisory.

Jointly organised by Forbes China and WRISE Academy, the selection was judged against the industry standards established in the 2026 China Family Office Development White Paper, with rigorous assessment across six dimensions including emerging potential, professional capability and asset management capability. The honour recognises Nice Talent’s “joint family office” model serving high-net-worth families, distinguished by an open multi-custody architecture, strategic FX investment and AI-driven risk management.

The three honours also affirm Nice Talent’s global expansion in recent years: its Singapore subsidiary Talent Global Capital Pte. Ltd. obtained a Capital Markets Services licence from the Monetary Authority of Singapore, a representative office was established in the Dubai International Financial Centre, and the Hong Kong–Singapore–Dubai “Golden Triangle” service network has taken shape.
